Foreword

It is with great pleasure and honour that the National Centre for Advanced Studies in Humanities and Social Sciences (NCAS) presents Volume 14, Issue I of the Sri Lanka Journal of Advanced Research Studies in Humanities and Social Sciences (SLJARS). This issue highlights scholarly work that advances knowledge and offers critical insights into societal wellbeing through the lenses of humanities and social sciences.

As the only research institute in Sri Lanka governed by the Universities Act No. 16 of 1978, NCAS remains committed to promote and extend high-quality research that integrates academic rigor with societal relevance. It is the known fact that the rapid technological changes cannot overstate the undeniable values of human behaviour and needs, importance of human intellect, ethical and natural judgment, and cultural understanding. Research on human behaviour, society and cultural identities continue to play a pivotal role in addressing contemporary challenges and informing evidence-based decision-making.

The contributions featured in this volume reflect the interdisciplinary evolution of the humanities and social sciences, especially through the practices of arts and cultures, education and polity, demonstrating engagement with empirical data and methods, and policy-oriented analysis. Each article represents a meaningful scholarly contribution, whether through the exploration of historical processes, cultural interpretations, or critical examinations of present-day social issues.

SLJARS is a peer-reviewed journal, published biannually under a double-blind review process, and has been recognized by Sri Lanka Journals Online (SLJOL) since 2007. The journal continues to serve as a respected platform for scholarly dialogue and intellectual exchange at national and international levels.

I extend my sincere gratitude to the authors, reviewers, and the editorial team for their dedication and scholarly commitment. Their efforts ensure the continued academic integrity and relevance of the journal. I am confident that the research presented in this issue will inspire future scholarship and contribute constructively to the advancement of knowledge and society.
